

“Expanding Roles and Responsibilities”

2nd Annual Conference

The Contributing Human Service Worker in Disaster
Planning

SAVE THE DATE!

June 14, 2007

8:00 am—4:30 pm

Sheraton Hotel—Lansing

For more information, contact
Michigan Department of Community Health,
Office of Public Health Preparedness
(517) 335-8150

Featuring:

Hilary Styron, Washington D.C.’s Director of the National Organization on Disability’s Emergency Preparedness Initiative

Staff Sgt. David Karnes, Hero and rescuer of two Port City Authority Officers trapped in the South Tower in the World Trade Center Attack

Dennis Potter, Founding member of Kent County Crisis Response Team and Mid-West Michigan Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM) Team

Richard Bottorff, school counselor experienced in counseling middle school-aged children about the fear of terrorism

Topics:

- Changing Roles in Behavioral Health
- Human Response to Disaster
- Agency Preparedness How’s and Why’s
- Determining Chain of Command
- Reaching Vulnerable Audiences
- Safety and Situational Awareness
- Discussing Terrorism with Children
- Immediate Post-Event Psychological Intervention

Continuing Education Credits:

Nursing, Social Work and EMS Credits—6.5
Physicians CME Credits—5.82

No Registration Fee: Participant fee is made possible by the Department of Health & Services, Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) Agreement award, U3RHS03849-01-04.

